Arts Club On Tour presents Vancouver TheatreSports® League's production of The Imprentice

Who will hear the dreaded words "You're fired!"

Format by Roger Fredericks and Louise Moon with Vancouver TheatreSports® League

October 10–November 10, 2008

"It was an awesome show. On the way out, I heard someone say, 'I'm coming back next week.' With a show this good, I very much doubt he will be alone" –Something Cool

"My sour spirits quickly gave way to laughs. Damn those comedic ad-libbers, so quick and able with the spontaneous wit" –The Georgia Straight

VANCOUVER, B.C.—If Whose Line Is It Anyway? had a child with The Apprentice, they would give birth to The Imprentice! But The Imprentice isn't about "money, money, money, money," it's about "funny, funny, funny, funny." When an all-powerful host, with impossibly bad hair, seeks an imprentice, the contenders must show off their improv chutzpah in this riotous boardroom battle. Who will hear the dreaded words "You're fired!"

Starring: Ted Cole as Donald Slump with Nathan Clark, Denise Jones, Ellen Kennedy, Bill Pozzobon, Randy Schooley, Pearce Visser. Director: Jay Ono. Set and Lighting Design: Ted Roberts. Stage Manager: Louis-Marie Bournival. Sound Improviser/Assistant Stage Manager: Laura Skelton
